NEXT MONTH'S TOPIC!

Being of Service in Recovery

Many of us struggle with being of service in Recovery. Where do I start? How much do I do? Am I seeking validation through service commitments? Am I doing too much? Can I do more? When should I say "No" to something? Too many times the real rewards of service work are not seen by us until much later or if at all but that doesn't lessen it's importance or effects.

The Newsletter team would love to hear about your experiences with being of service in recovery for next month's newsletter , especially with to rewards of so many commitments coming together at our upcoming convention.
